

Lawrence Morales II is a seasoned trial attorney, who has obtained millions of dollars in verdicts, judgments, and settlements on behalf of his clients. Lawrence is certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization as a labor and employment law specialist, and has successfully represented individuals and companies in complex employment law and business litigation matters, involving non-competition agreements, breach of fiduciary duty, theft of trade secrets, fraud, unfair competition, hostile work environment, discrimination, retaliation, unpaid minimum wages and overtime, and breach of contract.

Lawrence graduated at the top of his Baylor Law School class, and was an Executive Editor on The Baylor Law Review. After law school, Lawrence served as a law clerk to the Honorable Priscilla R. Owen of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Lawrence then practiced in the Labor and Employment Section of the international law firm of Haynes and Boone, LLP for six years, until starting The Morales Firm, P.C.

Lawrence is a frequent author on employment law and litigation topics, and has been published in The Texas Bar Journal, The Advocate, The San Antonio Lawyer, and The Essentials of E-Discovery. Lawrence has also served on numerous boards and committees concerning employment law and litigation, including Vice-Chair of the Labor and Employment Law Committee of the Young Lawyers Division of the American Bar Association, Fellow to the Federal Labor Standards Legislation Committee of the American Bar Association, Governmental Affairs Director of the San Antonio Human Resources Management Association, and a Board Member of the San Antonio Young Lawyers Association and the San Antonio Bar Association.

Lawrence also frequently lectures on employment law and litigation topics, and has served on the teaching faculty of continuing legal education seminars presented by the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Texas, including programs on Advanced Civil Trial Law, Advanced Evidence and Discovery, Advanced Consumer and Commercial Law, Employment Law, Wage and Hour Law, Advanced Personal Injury Law, and Electronic Discovery.
