

BIOGRAPHY

The Law Office of Chris A. Scherer provides employers with personalized Labor and Employment Law expertise. Its principal, Chris A. Scherer, was Board Certified in Labor and Employment Law in 2002 and has maintained his certification since then. The Law Office represents employers in all areas of Labor and Employment Law, including:

- Litigating, Arbitrating & Mediating
- Drafting, Advising on, & Litigating Restrictive Covenants
- Practicing Before Administrative Agencies (e.g., EEOC, TWC, DoL, NLRB)
- Advising & Counseling on Compliance with Employment Laws
- Drafting & Revising Personnel Policies & Employee Handbooks
- Presenting & Training on Employment Law Topics

Since opening his law office in 2004, Scherer has been named to the Texas Super Lawyers list in Texas Monthly magazine (only 5% of Texas attorneys are named to this list) from 2009-2014 and has been selected by Scene in SA magazine as one of San Antonio's "Best Lawyers" in Labor and Employment Law in 2005, 2008-2013. From 1995-2003 Scherer was an associate attorney with the law firm of Haynes and Boone, LLP, in its San Antonio office. His practice focused on Labor and Employment Law representing management.

Known for his lively, entertaining, and informative presentations, Scherer frequently provides employers training on employment law topics and makes presentations for the EEOC Training Institute Technical Assistance Program Seminars; the San Antonio Human Resources Management Association Employment Law Conference; the North San Antonio Chamber of Commerce Leadership Lab; the CE for Charity Series; and numerous others.

Scherer earned his Juris Doctor degree, magna cum laude, from Tulane University School of Law in May 1995. Before attending law school, from 1987-1992, he earned the rank of Captain in the United States Marine Corps. During Operation Desert Storm, Scherer led a 150-Marine unit in combat operations in Kuwait against Iraqi armed forces. Scherer attended the University of Texas at Austin on an NROTC scholarship from 1983-1987 and completed his BBA Degree as a Distinguished Naval Graduate.

An avid cyclist, Scherer has ridden in the annual "MS 150" bike ride since 2008 raising funds for the fight against multiple sclerosis. Thanks to his wonderful wife, Michelle, Scherer has two fabulous children, Virginia ("Ginny") and Grant, of whom he is embarrassingly proud and who continue to mature and grow older while Scherer does neither.
